U.S. PROBATION OFFICER ACTION

This office recently received correspondence from U. S. Probation Officer (USPO) Elizabeth Daly from the Eastern District of New York who presently supervises the releasee requesting imposition of the aforementioned search condition.

CAUSE

On February 27, 2008, Mr. Raymore commenced supervision in the Eastern District of New York due to his residence in Brooklyn, New York. Raymore has a significant criminal history, which includes a violent sex offense and a drug offense. He has a criminal history category of IV. He also has a significant drug history including marijuana and cocaine, which he has been less than candid about. Finally, his instant offense is failing to register as a sex offender, which involved lying to authorities about where he was residing. He is a level III sex offender. Raymore is considered a high risk offender who needs to be monitored closely.

RECOMMENDATION AND JUSTIFICATION

Based upon Mr. Raymore's previous criminal record, the U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court adopt the proposed modification to the conditions of supervised release for purposes of addressing risk control. On March 6, 2008, Raymore was presented with, and signed the attached Probation Form 49, Waiver of Hearing, agreeing to the imposition of the aforementioned condition. If your Honor concurs please sign on the attached document.

Respectfully submitted,

Chris J. Stanton
Chief U.S. Probation Officer
